

Purple Flag

DEVELOPMENT MANAGER - LONDON

Salary: circa 35k (dependent on experience)

Purple Flag is the Civic Trust's new accreditation scheme for town and city centres at night – designed to raise the standard and broaden the appeal.

We are looking for a Development Manager with strong town centre experience and a familiarity with hospitality areas at night to join a small team.

The role will include delivering pilot projects with local authorities and others, designing and leading training and motivational events, carrying out good practice research and policy development and working with the delivery team to ensure the success of the scheme.

Applications in the form of a CV and supporting statement should be sent to recruitment@civictrust.org.uk

Closing date: 6th March 2009

www.civictrust.org.uk