

London Borough of Greenwich

1. Greenwich Town Centre Manager

Salary PO6 £38,286 – £40,782 inc. REF: CEX44

Have you got the vision, enthusiasm and dedication to be Town Centre Manager for one of the most diverse and vibrant riverside areas in the Country? This role is critical to the continued development of the area as an exciting place to live, work, study and visit.

Greenwich Town Centre includes the Maritime Greenwich World Heritage Site, which receives over 6 million visitors a year and contains some of our finest architecture and institutions. The area, which has a large residential population, is also home to businesses ranging from micro enterprises to internationally significant museums and attractions.

East Greenwich is already undergoing major regeneration with new developments underway for the Dome, Greenwich Peninsula and along the riverfront. This is an exciting time for Greenwich, part of the Thames Gateway Regeneration Area and gearing up to host a number of events at the London Olympics in 2012.

We are looking for an experienced and energetic all rounder. You may be an existing Town Centre Manager or you may come from another related background. You must be a skilled negotiator able to communicate issues across a wide spectrum. You will be expected to manage and balance projects with a number of partnerships ranging from streetscape and signage enhancement, to events and promotions.

2. Cutty Sark Gardens Officer

Salary SO1 £24,825 – £26,358 inc. REF: CEX45

Cutty Sark Gardens is one of London's premiere riverside open spaces, it forms part of the Maritime Greenwich World Heritage Site, and is home to the World famous Cutty Sark Ship. It is a major tourist attraction and arrival point attracting millions of visitors each year.

We are seeking a motivated and creative individual to manage and market the Gardens, ensuring it is well maintained and superbly animated with events and activities. We want the Gardens to be a place that delights both visitors and residents alike with a clean and safe environment and a vibrant ambience. You could be from a variety of backgrounds but must have good communication skills and the ability to work with a wide range of interests including local residents, businesses and visitors. You will be flexible and able to work when needed to. We will need you in the Gardens when it is at its busiest – at weekends and when events are taking place.

Experience of marketing, events management or health and safety would be of great help.

3. Eltham Town Centre Manager

Salary PO4 £34,137 – £36,636 inc. REF:CEX46

Are you interested in developing your town centre management skills?
Do you have drive, enthusiasm and an eye for detail?

Eltham is a busy town centre in the suburbs of South East London. With a history dating back to Tudor times, it is the location of the magnificent Eltham Palace and Well Hall Pleasaunce, both of which are the focus of a small but growing tourism industry. The busy High Street hosts a variety of shops, restaurants, pubs and cafes catering for the needs of the large local residential population as well as the students from the nearby University of Greenwich Campus at Avery Hill.

We are looking for someone to draw together the strengths of this interesting town. With strong inter-personal skills we are looking for an experienced and energetic all rounder. You may be an existing Town Centre Manager or you may come from another related background. You must be a skilled negotiator able to communicate issues across a wide spectrum. You will be expected to work on a number of projects ranging from streetscape and signage enhancement, to events and promotions.
