

Town Centre Development Manager

Harlow, Essex.

Salary: £45,000 per annum

This is an exciting time for Harlow. The former New Town enjoys a superb strategic location but needs a bold programme of renewal and growth to fulfil its potential and to secure its future prosperity. In particular the Town Centre needs further re-development but the proposed growth of Harlow will enable this.

Our vision is to make Harlow a thriving town, seen nationally and internationally as an exemplar of successful, sustainable, physical, economic and social regeneration. Our programme of action will include new businesses, new jobs and new houses.

Harlow Renaissance Limited has been established to deliver this vision. The company is a small but dynamic operating unit with the ability to enable major change and deliver tangible benefits for Harlow.

Harlow Renaissance is looking to recruit an Town Centre Development Manger to lead the development of the Town Centre Partnership and achieve a step change in the position of Harlow Town Centre within the sub-region.

The post holder will have responsibility for creating a self-sustaining Town Centre Partnership with a well developed and effective programme of physical improvements and promotional activity that is integrated with the wider renewal of Harlow Town Centre.
